Questions to guide the discussion:

- What is the single market dimension in your abstract/paper?
- What governance dimension (public-private or multi-level or, ideally, both, does your paper address)?
- Any feedback for the editors on how the general SI proposal may need to be tweaked or revised?

12:30-13:30 Lunch break

13:30-14:30 CET	PART II: Research workshop Plenary discussion preparation of the Special Issue proposal to be sent to academic journals Reports from the three break-out groups on the revision of the journal special issue abstracts. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How does your abstract/paper speak to other papers in the SI? Any parallels, common themes we need to highlight in the SI proposal (and in the introduction)? - Would you be able to test the overarching hypotheses in the SI proposal? Any initial insights, limitations, caveats? - Suggestions for other journals we could consider for the special issue, any experiences working with those journals?
14:30-15:00 Coffee break
15:00-16:30 CET	PART III: Teaching workshop Plenary discussion and brainstorm with the partners about starting work on the joint VISTA Teaching materials Questions to guide the discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Should the initial design of the joint teaching materials be adapted, given the online teaching circumstances during the pandemic? - If yes, what would be most useful and feasible for the instructors teaching VISTA courses in the partner universities (tour de table to collect everyone's input)? - The final teaching materials will be published open access to share with other instructors who might be interested. What kinds of courses would the adjusted teaching materials fit it, and for what kind of student audiences will they be relevant (i.e. undergraduate, graduate, etc.)?
